

Clicking on Followed will show the user the MOods of the people that they are following

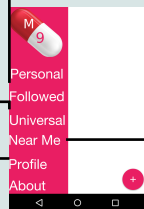

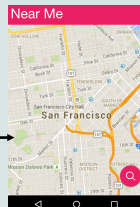

Clicking on Personal will show the user the MOods that they have posted

The user's profile page will allow them to edit their followings and deal with their requests

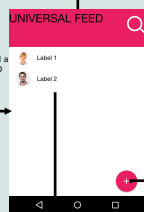

This map view will allow the user to see any MOods that are in their area

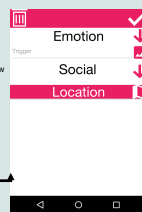

Sliding to the right will display the sidebar so the user can navigate to several pages

After the user has entered a username, pressing on GO will take them to the universal feed screen

The user can add a MOod by clicking on the plus arrow

Clicking on another user's MOod from the feed will show the specific details

