

This will be the initial screen when the application is opened.

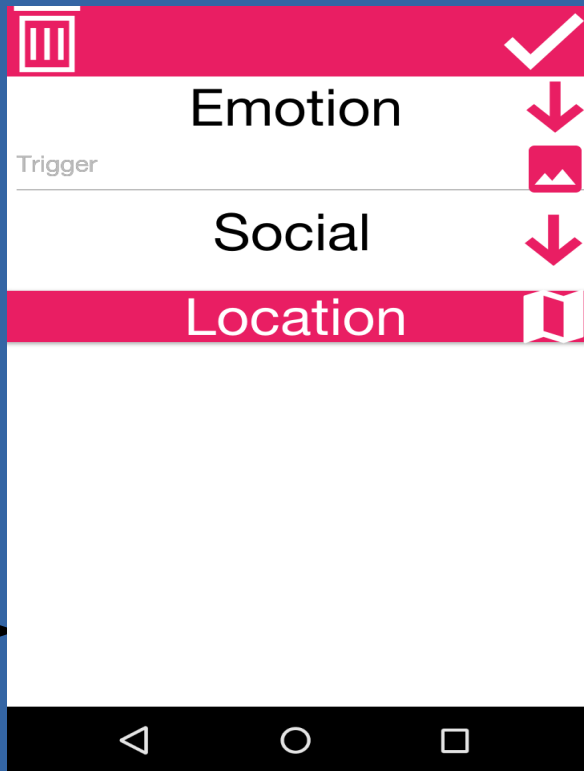

After the user has entered a username, Pressing on GO will take them to the universal Feed screen.

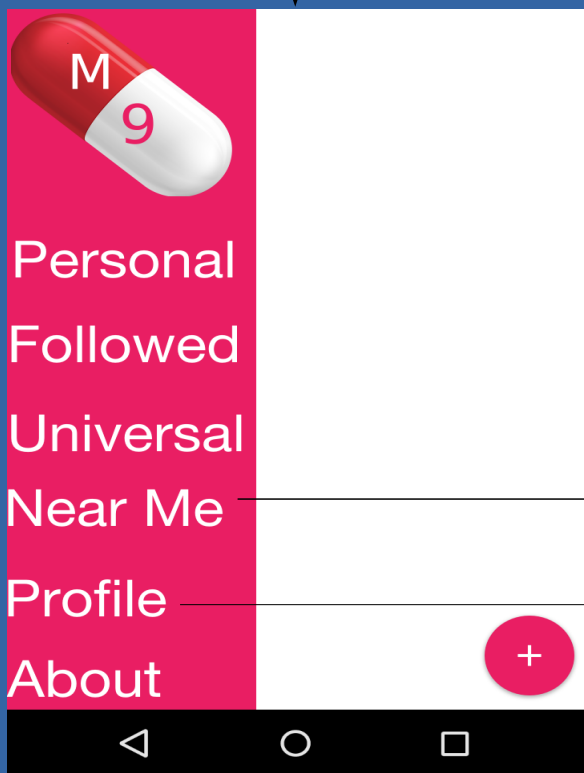

Clicking on another user's MOod will Show the specific details

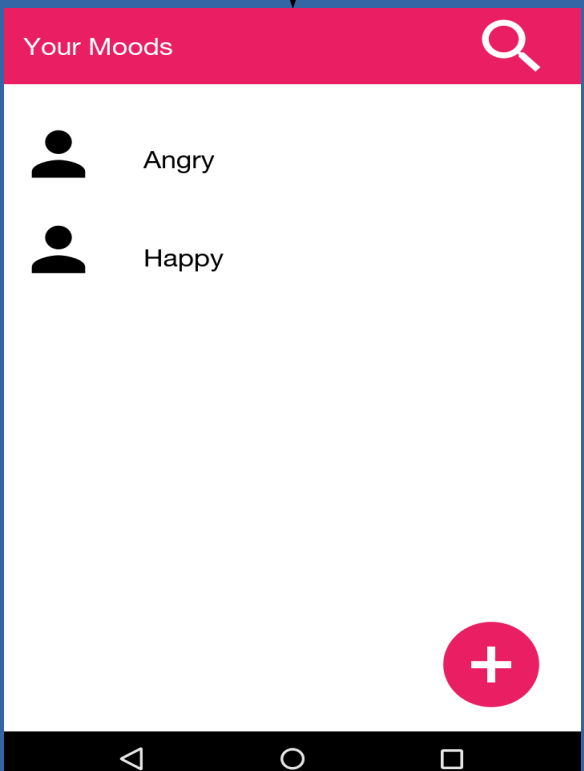

The user can add a MOod by clicking on the plus button

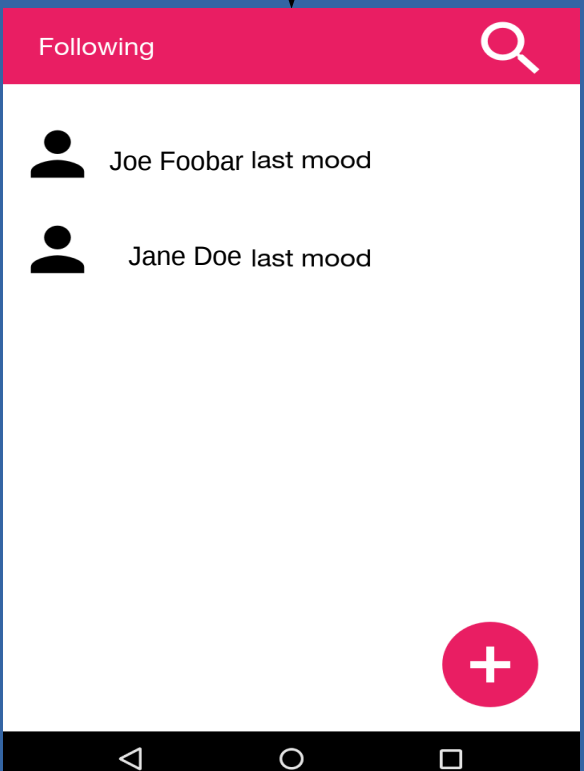

Swiping to the left from any of the above screens will show the user a sidebar with navigation options

Clicking on Personal will show the user the MOods that they have created and posted

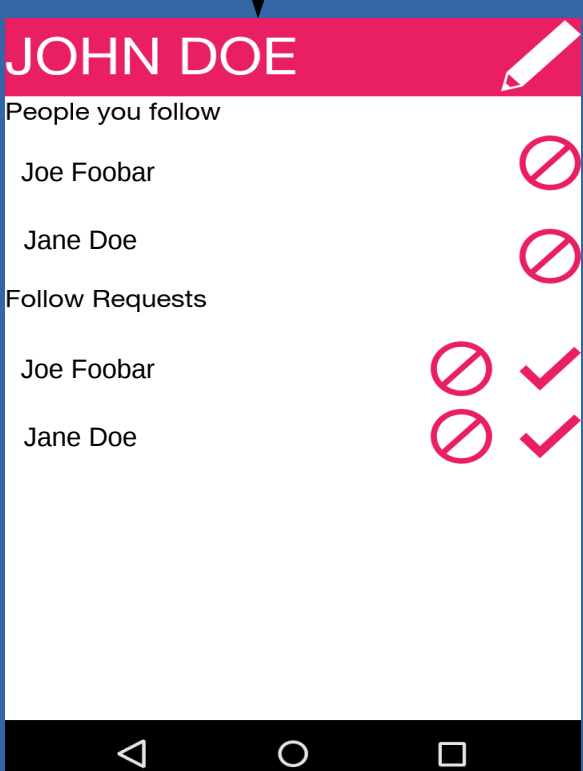

Clicking on Followed will show the user the MOods of the people that they are following

Clicking on Universal will show the user the Universal Feed, as displayed above

The user's profile page will allow them to edit their followings and deal with any requests they may have.

Near me view will allow the user to see any MOods that may be in their area.

